

TOP HOUSTON CPA FIRM WELCOMES THREE NEW PARTNERS

Ham, Langston & Brezina, LLP (HLB) is pleased to announce the addition of three new partners and fourteen professional staff that recently joined the firm. HLB welcomes partners Bill Ansell, CPA, Ann Masel, CPA and Mark Rush, CPA, formerly with DRDA, PLLC. With these additions, the firm will have 75 professionals, including seven partners, and offices in both Houston and Galveston, Texas.

“We look forward to adding the strength and expertise of this new group of professionals. Their history of providing quality service in a timely manner is a perfect match with the philosophy followed by HLB for more than 20 years,” said Rob Brezina. “Their expertise in working with multi-generational businesses and established families, will bolster HLB’s current practice, that includes tax, audit, litigation support, estate planning, and other business advisory services. “

“We are excited to join HLB, a firm we have known for many years,” said Bill Ansell. “Our firms share a common client service philosophy and vision for achieving growth and future success in our marketplaces.”
